

VILLA ALANG ALANG

BALI - SEMINYAK

Taking its name from the characteristic tropical thatch roof gracing its dwellings, villa Alang Alang, offers 3 bedrooms altogether divided in two dependent bungalows suites, set within a most winsome and practical ground for families and friends in search of a holiday hideaway to share.

The decor is simple, at times vagabond, a brightly coloured canvas here, an gracefully shaped relic there. The garden, without being extravagant, provides ample space for enjoyment, beautiful and lush, home to some gorgeous specimen of tropical palmetto and more delicate flowering trees.

The pool thrones i its center, a lengthy deck running along one of its side, host to a couple of well placed lounge chairs and gathering aperitif table, at which one may laze in the pleasure of soaking up the heat and magnificent tropical sun.

The bedrooms are at either end of the garden. The first two in the west, under one same roof, share a pleasant living space, fitted with sofas and a fair size dinning table. The kitchen bar set in a small recess, is a welcome addition for the eventual craving for simple home made meals, when a rest may be desired from the generous array of dining options available in the vicinity of Villa Alang Alang groovy neighbourhood.

The main bedroom is bright and ingeniously attired with a great mosquito net encompassing not only the large double bed but a good half of the room as well, providing an uncommon sense of tented space. It opens pleasantly onto the green luxuriance of the garden, inviting in soothing breeze and sultry light.

The second bedroom, set at the opposite end of the living, much smaller in size, host nonetheless a double bed to accommodate big and small alike. Both bedrooms are air conditioned and enjoy the privilege of adjacent en-suite bathrooms.

On the other side of the pool, in the far east corner of the garden, the other dwelling resides. Mirror image of the first bungalow, but for its somewhat varying decor, it offers a second living area, kitchen and accompanying facilities.
