

VILLA ORCHID

BALI - CANGGU

Draped in white, this lovely one bedroom villa nestled by the river is an odd to Bali's sun filled days and serene character. Adjacent to the magical spa of the three villas estate it belongs to, Villa Orchid is as private as can be, its domain guarded by an intricately carved wooden door, worthy of an old Asian palace. The atmosphere is refreshing and soothing all at once, as one steps under the threshold into the luminous courtyard rising above the pool.

A few steps down the house welcome, its living running along side the pool deck. Big rattan sofas and the gentle ruffle of the light cotton panels framing the various space of the house, enforce a peaceful embracing tone.

A small open kitchen bar reside a the back of the living room and beyond it a quaint little patio with lounging chairs and a set of stairs reaching high above ground to a small private veranda from which to enjoy much privacy and the picturesque view of the surrounding river banks and rice fields in the distance.

The bedroom hides in the heart of the house, supreme and cosy at wish, with its grand four poster bed, dressed in dream full manner. The light is natural and gently diffused gracing the room with a constant feel of undisturbed tranquility.

To one side, large bay windows slide open to reveal the en suite bathroom, haven of light and serenity.
