

VILLA JAGO

BALI - CANGGU

Placed at the tip of the beach, just meters from the river estuary, Villa Jago enjoys a very open and attractive view to the ocean and immensity of its aqua blue waters embracing the south coast of Bali.

The entrance, solemn and understated, leads to the shaded outdoor lounge behind which stands the impressive indoor gym, fully equipped and ready for use. A few more steps allow the discovery of an elevated deck on which resides the infinity pool, with the serene garden grounds below and the magnetic sea view in the background.

The two guest bedrooms lay there by the side at garden level. Both with king size beds and en suite bathrooms, they enjoy unobstructed sea view through the glass panes of the large sliding doors of their entrance. The first one also benefits the extra space of an adjoining smaller bedroom, to accommodate guests with small children.

The upstairs is reached by a set of floating stairs in the lounge. Its landing opens onto a large indoor dining and living area, fitted with noticeable elements of contemporary design, of which a large dining table with six bubble chairs and little further a large sofa and sitting alcove, surrounded by a set of picture windows allowing a charming view onto the towering tree's foliage and temple embracing the back of the house. The entire space opens through a number of large sliding panes, onto a breezy terrace, host to a comfortable set of sofas chairs and yet another dining table, overlooking the pristine grounds and ocean

Off the main room, are the kitchen, fully equipped and ready to produce palatable delights and master cocktails, as well as the air conditioned media room from which the villa professional sound system may be operated, and movies enjoyed on the large flat screen tv.

Finally, tucked away in the depth of the main room, a small corridor leads to the third and master chamber ; a large bedroom enjoying magnificent view to the out "sea", with eloquent wardrobe space, a double raindrop shower bathroom and unexpected private jacuzzi terrace.

Alone or plenty, this is very much a self sufficient home to enjoy tuning out at its best.
