VILLA BIKOU

BALI - SEMINYAK

Situated at the back of the famous Oberoi hotel, neighbour to Ku De Ta and many other delightful or trendy eateries, Villa Bikou merges with great result, play, design and comfort providing a wonderful and heavenly holiday pad.

Neighbour to typical Balinese home, its close surroundings are village like and behind the white door that defines the property, the feeling remains.

Indeed strolling down the path leading to the house one discovers an enticing garden, tropical yet very "old world" in feel.

The simplicity of the landscaping, a pleasant association of green vegetation and natural stone confers a sense of serenity and the promise of quiet moments.

The lengthy pool itself reminds of water fountain often found in more familiar and elegantly aged countryside. Indeed one could almost believe to be entering into the privacy of a secret hidden pavilion of an otherwise large and noble domain.

Within its peace, the garden host various dining area to fit changing moods; a large wooden table with benches to dine under the starry sky by the pool, a cosy setting in the outdoor kitchen by the wood fire oven and of course many more possibility within the protection of the terrace surrounding the house.

The house itself is fresh, colourful yet exquisitely stylish.

One is welcomed by an array of lounging chairs and sofas placed appropriately indoors as well as out on the terrace to experience freely the open air style living of the tropics without having to suffer the great possibility of rain when in season.

To one side of the living room an opening connects to the kitchen. A bright "food" space, practical and well fitted.

Attaining the kitchen entrance, to the side, a set of stairs leads to the door of the master bedroom. Behind it opens a very large and sunny room decorated with colourful artwork, artefacts and home to a lounging corner, writing desk and an inviting king size bed. Following is the dressing and shower room.

Back down the stairs, after having pondered a while over the intriguing photos and various memorabilia lining the adjacent wall, a second bedroom is found at the further end of the living room

With a French doors opening directly onto the terrace and surrounding garden it is a luminous and cosy space, with a large double bed and its private en suite bathroom.
