

VILLA PERIDOT

BALI - CANGGU

Unusually, this grand residence enjoys the peaceful and attractive views of both the sea and rice fields.

A green and extensive pathway builds the surprise effect one experience when finally resting its gaze over the large and inviting pristine lawn, the grandiose pool below and astonishing view over the laguna and ocean horizon behind.

Upon entering, to the left, facing the open space of the lawn, is a smaller guest pavilion, home to two lovely guest rooms, each with its own private bathroom, separated by a peaceful covered lounging den.

Further along, a second building hosts the dining room and it partially open plan kitchen, opening onto the "grand bale": the open air living room from which to enjoy the peaceful breeze running through rice fields or the gorgeous sunset over the beach horizon later on in the evening.

Above the dining area, led to by a discreet set of stairs, is a quaint sunset lounge, off of which a third guest room resides, with private en suite bath, both quietly over looking the rice fields bordering the property on this side.

A third building, to which one is lead past the living room through a thatch covered bridge, is home to the master suite. This one consist of two splendid bedrooms, one above the other, with each a private entrance, large walk in closet and adjacent bath. Both open onto a private verandah enjoying each rice field and sea views.

At the back of the suites, a small set of stairs finally takes one to a state of the art private home cinema, seating comfortably up to 20 guests.

A magnificent place to indulge in and entertain, villa Peridot further entice with its original pool, sliding ramps, a second lawn below it all and lovely treillissed deck by the laguna's edge.
